

President Kovind addresses 7th convocation of IIT Hyderabad

- 05-08-2018 | 6:35 pm

Share Now

President Ram Nath Kovind addresses 7th convocation of IIT, Hyderabad; Calls on the students to dream big, aim high and contribute for the benefit of the society at large; Also presents medals and awards to the meritorious students.

President Ram Nath Kovind on Sunday addressed the 7th convocation of IIT-Hyderabad at its campus in Kandi. Over 600 students attended the convocation where the President presented medals and degrees to meritorious students of the institute. Addressing the students, the President said that the best scientific universities and institutions are not just teaching shops, but are sources of innovation and incubators of technology and technology-driven start-ups. President called on the students to dream big, aim high and contribute for the benefit of the society at large. President also said that IIT Hyderabad has to remain relevant for the Fourth Industrial Revolution.

Source: DD News

Date: 05/08/2018